EXPERIENCE

erxes Inc.

Frontend Engineer

Jun 2, 2026 - Present

- Build and maintain production frontend features in a large TypeScript and React monorepo, translating product requirements into reliable user experiences.
- Create reusable components and scalable interface patterns for complex business workflows, with attention to responsive behavior, consistency, and usability.
- Integrate frontend applications with GraphQL APIs and shared services while handling permissions, asynchronous state, loading, error, and partial-success scenarios.
- Collaborate through code reviews, debugging, refactoring, and iterative product development to improve performance, maintainability, and application quality.

Pinecone Academy

Software Engineering Trainee & Full Stack Intern

Jul 2025 - Apr 2026

- Completed intensive project-based training before contributing to a team-built sign-language learning platform with live detection, practice flows, and admin-managed vocabulary.
- Built full-stack features with Next.js, React, GraphQL, Prisma, PostgreSQL, and MediaPipe in a shared monorepo and collaborative workflow.
- Developed web and mobile projects involving authentication, REST APIs, local data storage, responsive interfaces, and offline-first learning flows.
- Helped deliver a 2nd-place PineQuest hackathon project: an AI-powered LMS exam platform with mobile proctoring, real-time alerts, and PDF question extraction.
